

Colour-ringed Herring Gull in Barking Park

A well travelled British race bird. A5FK, (LNHM ring: GC42061) was ringed on 16th August 2007 as a small orphan chick from Brighton and remained in the centre for 64 days before being released at Pett Level, East Sussex 50:55N. 00:42E.

There have been several other sightings of this bird:
Gloucester Landfill site 2/1/2008,
Blaringham landfill site, France 28/2/2008,
Barking park 31/1/2009, 5/3/2009.

Images by Paul Hawkins

